

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1744.

Naples, January 28.

Ouriers pass and repass continually between this City and the Army under the Command of the Count de Gages; and tho' it is by no Means certain that his Majesty intends to change the present System of his Conduct, by departing from the Neutrality he has so long maintained, yet it is evident by the Preparations he is making, that he intends to be in a Condition to act, if he thinks fit. With this in view, he has remounted his Cavalry, recruited his Infantry, is just now giving the necessary Orders for firing the Magazines, throughout the Fortresses of his Dominions, with Provisions and Military Stores. According to our last Advices from Madrid, we have great reason to expect that a French and Spanish Fleet will speedily appear on our Coasts; and then, and not before, the true Sentiments of this Court will be known.

mean time it is certain, that a Publick Minister, resident here, has declared to our Ministry, that if the Court commits the least Infraction of the last stipulated Neutrality, it will be too late to think of looking back; that therefore his Majesty ought to weigh well the Consequences of any such Step before he takes it, since the Duke of Modena ought to be a Warning to Princes who are capable of Infincerity.

February 1. The Republick having taken a Resolution not to be tamely deprived of so valuable a Prince as that of Final, have thereupon fixed the necessary Funds for supplying whatever may be required for its Security; and have actually begun to send Arms, Ammunition, and Engineers, both to that City and to Savona. It is said, that a solemn Embassy will be sent to Venice, in order to engage that State to interpose with the contracting Parties to the Treaty of Form, in favour of her Sister Republick. According to our last Advices from Calabria, the Plague is not only ceased; but is not above two in five die of it every taken, it is hoped that the Malignity of it is great Measure abated.

February 1. According to our last Advices from Vienna, there seems to have happened some change there, in respect to the System of Affairs in Italy; as appears by the Orders that are sent hither, to wit, and even to augment our Forces. It is whistled, that a new General will be likewise sent hither; that the Forces of her Hungarian Majesty will be augmented, as to be in a Condition of following the Spaniards into the Kingdom of Naples, and even to offer resistance against the Troops of that Country, if they should join the Spaniards; which, as Things are at present, we can scarce believe they will do. It has been lately resolved, as a Testimony of our affection to the Brother of our Sovereign, as well as to the Imperial House of Austria, that the Nobility of the Grand Duchy shall present to the Archduchess Mary a Free Gift of 20,000 Florins. We were lately informed with a Report, that the Spaniards were in full march to attack us; but it proved no more than an idle tale, occasioned by the Motion of some Detachments of the General had thought fit to send for the Security of the Kingdom from the Ecclesiastical State; and we are pretty well satisfied, that the Spaniards have neither the Inclination nor the Power to undertake such an Invasion.

February 18. The Professor Celsius, who first discovered the Comet that is now visible in our Horizon, on the 14th of December last, has calculated its Proximity towards the Earth, and has found, that by the end of January, that is, within a Month after he published his Observations, it would be nearer us than at its Appearance, by 6000 of the Earth's Diameters. An Astronomer, whose Sentiments upon the same Matter we formerly published, gave another Account; but since Experience has already shown that there were some Mistakes in his Calculations, we do not trouble ourselves further about them.

HOME PORTS.

Southampton, February 13. Since my last sailed the Exchange Packet, Leane, for Lisbon.

Southampton, February 14. Wind E. N. E. Arrived the Crown, Braine, from London.

February 15. Came in the Jane, Shank, and Mary, Thompson, both from London.

Yesterday at One o'Clock at Noon passed by the Fleet under the Command of Sir John Norris, to Southampton, February 15. Wind S. E. Arrived the Four Brothers, Ambrose, from Cork. Sailed the Wilmington, Fry, for Alderney.

Portsmouth, February 16. This Morning came to Spithead the Black Prince, Wallace, the Neptune, Bruce, and the Anne, Long, all for Gibraltar; the Don Carlos, Moxham, and the Sarah, Stone, both for Oporto; the Seaford, Baker, for East-India; the Concord, Nickles, and the Sarah, Bell, both for Lisbon. This Morning I received a particular Account, that the Fleet under the Command of Sir John Norris, was seen last Night off the Ore Sand, about 15 Leagues from the Isle of Wight, bearing away to the Eastward.

Dreadnought, and the Hannah Tender, with the Outward-bound.

This Morning early arrived an Express from Fal-mouth, with Advice, that 17 Sail of French Ships were, on Tuesday last at Noon, off the Lizard, beating the Channel.

General Post-Office, London, February 8, 1743.

WHEREAS the Post-Boy, going out with the West Mail from this Office, was this Morning, between Five and Six o'Clock, attack'd on the Highway at the Stating Place, on the other Side of Turbam-Green, by a single Highwayman, who took the said Post-Boy into a Field adjoining to the Road, and opened the Mail, and carried off the Exeter and Plymouth Bags; The Person, who committed this Robbery, is a middle-sized Man, and had on a Blue Great Coat, with his Hat tied over his Head and he rode on a Sorrel Horse with a White Face, about Fourteen Hands high, and made off for Acton, the Oxford Road.

This therefore is to give Notice, that whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the Person who committed this Robbery, will be intitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen: Or if any Person or Persons, whether Accomplices in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, shall make a Discovery, whereby the Person who committed the same may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer, or Discoverers, will, upon Conviction of the Party, be intitled to the same Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and also have his Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post-Master General,
George Shelocke, Secretary.

LONDON.

In the last Fleet from Rio de Janeiro there was brought over to Lisbon a Woman who is completely Black on the one Side, and perfectly White on the other. She is considered there as the greatest Curiosity that was ever seen, and 500 Moldores have been offered, and refused for her.

Private Letters from Paris say, that it is at last certain that Marshal Coigny will command upon the Rhine, and the Count de Saxe upon the Moselle. The same Letters say, that upon the strictest Enquiry, the late Fire at Breit appeared to be absolutely accidental.

The French are raising prodigious Magazines at Dunkirk, and the Places adjoining, but for what Purpose we cannot determine.

Private Letters from Holland say, that the System of Affairs is, in a great Measure, changed there; many who were the best Friends of the French having not only declared against them, but even proposed taking more vigorous Measures than have been hitherto mentioned.

The same Letters say, that, according to some private Advices from Petersburg, the Journey of the Empress and the Imperial Prince to Moscow, was again put off for some Time.

They write from Vienna, that a Treaty of Marriage is on foot, and will be speedily concluded, between his Royal and Electoral Highness the Prince of Saxony, and the young Princess of Lorrain.

We hear that Colonel Vanderdussen is not only to have the Command of an Independent Company, but will, at the same Time, be advanced to the Rank of a Colonel in the Army, as a Reward of his Bravery and Conduct, at the Siege of St. Augustine.

Yesterday both Houses of Parliament waited on his Majesty with their Address relating to the Message received on Wednesday last. There was as great an Appearance of both Lords and Commons as ever was seen at Court.

The Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty have appointed Captain Durel to be Captain of the Eltham, a Forty Gun Ship.

Yesterday his Grace the Duke of Marlborough waited on his Majesty.

The same Day the Sheriffs of this City waited on his Majesty, to know his Pleasure, when he would be attended with their Address; and his Majesty was pleased to appoint this Day, at Half an Hour after One o'Clock.

General Post-Office, London, January 12, 1743.

WHEREAS the Post-boy carrying the North Mail from Huntington to Stilton, was yesterday, the 11th Instant, about Six of the Clock in the Evening, attacked on the Highway, at a Place called Standgate-Hole, by a single Highwayman, who presented a Pistol to the Post-boy's Breast, and carried off the following Bags; viz. Durham, Hull, Bolton, Falsingham, Lincoln, Horncastle, Louth, Spalding, Stamford, Bourn, and Peterborough.

The Person who committed this Robbery is a luffy Man, and had on a large dark Frack over his Coat; his Face was covered with Black, and he rode on a dark Sorrel Horse, with a White Face, and made off for the Biggleswade Road.

This therefore is to give Notice, That whoever shall Apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the Person who committed this Robbery, will be intitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen: Or if any Person or Persons, whether Accomplices in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, shall make a Discovery, whereby the Person who committed the same, may be apprehended, and brought to Justice, such Discoverer or Discoverers will, upon Conviction of the Party, be intitled to the same Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and also have his Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post-master General,
George Shelocke, Secretary.

February 16, 1743.

To the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council, of the City of London.

Gentlemen,

THE Office of Bailiff for the Borough of Southwark being vacant by the Death of Mr. Thomas Bolde, I humbly intreat your Vote and Interest to succeed him; which will greatly oblige, Gentlemen,
